THE MARKETS

The following prices for fruits and vegetables are those asked by the wholesaler of the retailer, and not what is paid to the producer. All other prices are those paid the producer. Corrections are made daily.

After holding up for a price of 9 to 10 cents for several months, roosters may be said to be on the decline as the present market conditions justify only a price of 8 cents a pound.

Hogs are off today and spring lambs are bringing only 7-12 cents. In the vegetable line, the changes include a reduced price for cabbage and the same may be said of carrots by the dozen. New carrots are selling for $1.75 a sack and Valencia oranges for $3.50 a box.

Weekly Report of Union Stock Yards

North Portland, May 31.—Cattle. The days receipts were very light only 494 head being on the market. Tails consisted of California grass stuff, a feature of the receipts was the beginning of the Mexican steer run for the season. They sold well at $8.00 the balance being natives of very poor grade. The top price reached today was $8.50 for grass fed steers the bulk going at $7.90. Cows were very scarce also heifers and bulls no change in price. There was a falling off in calf receipts this week but the prices were unchanged.

Hogs
A large run of hogs was received, approximately 5000 head being placed on the market. The top price reached was $8.25 the bulk going at $8.05 to $8.75. Market closed rather weak.

Sheep
A fair run was received this week and placed on the market. Lambs are now selling for $9.00 wethers reached a top price of $8.25, bulk selling at old rate no change in ewes, very few being received.

WILLAMETTE NOTES

Prof. Florian Von Eschen took 24 of his geology class to Silver Creek Falls yesterday to study geology formations as they are displayed at the falls. Those who took the trip were given oral examinations. The professor asking a question that would involve a geological principle. The party left at 5 o'clock in the morning and returned early in the evening. The trip was highly profitable to those who took it as many principles were fixed in their minds by seeing the theoretical explained in terms of the actual.

ELIHU ROOT OF NEW YORK, EX-SENATOR MAY WIN REPUBLICAN NOMINATION

Not long ago, when the name of Elihu Root of New York, former secretary of state and of war and former United States senator, was mentioned as a Republican presidential possibility, both friends and enemies of Mr. Root said that he is too old. Despite his age, however, there is again much activity on Mr. Root's behalf. He is seventy-one years old on February 15. Mr. Root is one of America's most famous lawyers and has an international reputation for learning in jurisprudence. The list of offices that he has filled and the honors that he has received is very long. None of them probably is more highly prized by its possessor than the Nobel peace prize for 1912, which was awarded to Mr. Root in 1913 in recognition of his efforts in behalf of international peace and arbitration.
